

Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) Non-certification

Completion of this degree does NOT qualify the candidate for certification as an ESL teacher in New York State. Those wishing such certification must apply to the ESOL All Grades program.

Name: _____ Person Number: _____

Ed.M.

	Date	Credit	Grade
REQUIRED COURSES (15-18 credits)
LAI 581 Linguistics for L2 Educators*		3
LAI 591 TESOL Methods and Materials		3
LAI 582 Principles Lang Acquisition, 1 st & 2 nd		3
LAI 594 Pedagogical Grammar of English		3
LAI 691 TESOL Practicum		3
LAI XXX Academic English for International Students 		3
SELECT AT LEAST THREE FROM THE FOLLOWING (9 credits):
LAI 681 Understanding & Teaching L2 Culture		3
LAI 682 Assessing Second Lang. Proficiency		3
LAI 579 ESL Literacy: Reading Focus		3
LAI 585 L2 Literacy: Focus Writing		3
Other courses in the L2 area offered by L2 faculty (check with your advisor)
ELECTIVES (6-9 credits, in consultation with advisor):
COMPREHENSIVE EXAMINATION: (to be taken during last semester of coursework; attempt a maximum of two times)
Comprehensive Examination		0
Total Credits (Ed.M.)		33

* Students with adequate preparation in linguistics may waive LAI 581, Linguistics for L2 Educators, which will allow you to take a 3-hour elective in lieu of this course. Consult with your advisor.

** Required for international students unless waived by their advisor.

*** Courses may be inside or outside the second language area of LAI, including such areas as: anthropology, comparative education, educational psychology, foreign languages, instructional communications, linguistics, social/philosophical/historical foundations of education, reading, language arts, or bilingual education.