The Diversity in Action Institute is a UB Professional Development Initiative offered to local school educators working with a diverse student population. Phase 1, the Summer Institute, was offered August 3-10, 2009. Phase 2, the Action Research Cycle, will be offered September 2009 to May 2010. Participants will explore diversity through the lens of practitioner action research and a collaborative, mentored relationship with faculty from the Graduate School of Education at UB.

Instructors: Dr. Bob Stevenson, Dr. Emily Cole

Contact: Dr. Maeva López-Kassem at (716) 645-2461 or ml55@buffalo.edu

- Phase 2, Action Research Cycle: School Year 2009-10
  - 30 PD hours or 3-credit hour graduate course (45 hours)
  - Saturday meetings once a month
  - 8:30-11:00 A.M.
  - 479 Baldy Hall, North Campus

SPONSORED BY
Teacher Education Institute, Graduate School of Education, University at Buffalo