

iMovie

Project: Movie Trailer

Novel: _____

This iMovie will be done with your group and will be presented on _____ . Your iMovie will be graded on how well you convey the required literary elements, your use of special effects, sound and transitions, and your group's presentation to the class (see attached rubrics).

You will be given a group grade and an individual grade. Your group grade will be based on the attached rubrics and your individual grade will be based on how well you performed your job as artistic director, focus director, sound track director, or editor. This will be worth a total of six grades for this marking quarter – three will be based on the group and three the individual.

This project will take cooperation with, and consideration to, your fellow classmates. In order to facilitate this I am requiring each group to follow the attached checklist. No Group will be given a camera with out completing the checklist. This will help everyone work together and help organize and expedite the project.

iMovies cannot be more than 2 minutes long!!!!!!

Your movie will be docked 5 points for every second it goes over.
